Having received several very important improvements viz.:—

Morrison's wonderful little Engine, for cleaning and excavating decayed teeth, preparatory to filling, which does the work with such rapidity and beautiful exactness, that in a very few seconds an otherwise sensitive tooth is prepared for the Gold in a manner unattainable by the disagreeable method of scraping and burning, so well known by those who have experienced the operation.

Also Green's Electric Engine, which took the grand Diploma of Honor at the Vienna Exhibition. The feat of harnessing lightning is fairly done in this neat, efficient, and truly wonderful little machine. By this we manipulate the gold into the most difficult of frail teeth, with the most exquisite exactness, and without danger of fracturing the most delicate enamel. Then, with the same engine, we finish and polish the filling in less than one quarter the time formerly required, and without pain. No patient who has had teeth filled in this manner once, will ever willingly consent to the use of excavators or burrs again.

We have also received an immense quantity of the most beautifully carved Artificial Teeth, comprising thousands of different shades and forms, from which with our long practical experience we can match any style or feature, complexion, or expression, with such artistic incense that detection is impossible.

The Plate we use for the atmospheric pressure is the Whalebone Rubber, the lightest and strongest known.

We have been using Nitrous Oxide Gas for the painless Extraction of Teeth for nearly four years, and have administered over 20,000 Times,

2,140 times in this City alone, since August 1872,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

TELL US WHAT CURED YOU?—Tired to death. When the sick die, everybody can tell what they died of. Is it not right, then, that when the sick recover, all the world should know what cured them? And yet thousands are cured of deadly ills by Bristol's Sarsaparilla, whom the public never hear. Cases that approach the sublimity of miracles—such as that of the boy, James Wyckoff, who was literally wrenched from the jaws of death, when more than half devoured by scrofula—of course find their way into print. Perhaps a hundred such have startled society through the columns of leading journals and medical periodicals. But Bristol's Sarsaparilla has wrought thousands-aye, tens of thousands, of cures, after physicians had shaken their heads and said, "no hope." Everywhere, at all seasons, it is silently working wonders. Would that, for the sake of humanity, the whole truth in relation to its properties were universally known. As a tonic, Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills should be used at the same time with the Sarsaparilla. They take off from the system the diseased humors secreted in the latter. cj—m18

THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1874.

GOOD OMENS.

Three auspicious events were announced yesterday. The Governor of Cordoba telegraphed to Pres. Sarmiento that he had just opened the first section, 30 miles, of the Tucuman railway as far as Jesus Maria. Mr. Roldan telegraphed from Corrientes that he had arrived there safe and sound, having descended the Rio Bermejo in 64 hours from Esquina Grande. Mr. Gowland announced the Punta Lara pier ready to commence working, according to tariff in our advertising columns.

The opening of the first section of the Tucuman line has taken everybody by surprise and shews how indefatigably the contractors are pushing on the works. Before the close of the year we may look for another section to be opened and in 1876 the whole line to be completed. Cordoba has at least gained something by her connection with B. Ayres, having now 3 lines of railway open to traffic and another (the Rio Quinto line) recently commenced.

The descent of the Bermejo by Mr. Roldan was made in as many hours as it took him days to ascend, and he reports the river now quite free for navigation, and the Indians friendly. The steamers specially built at New York for this Company will find no serious obstacle to ascend as high as Rivadavia colony, although the thousand bends and great current necessarily render the navigation up-stream rather slow.

As regards Punta Lara pier Mr. Gowland says it is 2,865 feet long, namely 2,475 feet with a width of 25 feet and single line of rails, and 390 feet with a width of 40, and double track, having also 4 steam cranes and other requisites. Vessels drawing 16 feet can come up and discharge, or at high water drawing up to 20 feet: the bottom is muddy, and not liable to hurt vessels. As many as 5 sea-going vessels can moor alongside together, and a dozen of Mitchell's buoys have been ordered from England. The roadstead is sheltered on the S.E. and S.W., having 3 feet more water, and 5 times more area than the Inner Roads of Buenos Ayres. The mole at Ensenada is in 10 feet of water, and the depth will be increased to 18 feet by dredging. As Bateman's port seems postponed indefinitely this news is encouraging.

TRADE RETURNS OF U. STATES.

We have before us Dr. Young's annual returns of the import and export trade of the U. States.

The table stands thus—

	Imports millions $		Exports millions $
Great Britain	238	..	376
Germany	61½	..	63½
Cuba	85½	..	18½
France	34	..	34
British America	14	..	38
Brazil	38½	..	7
Mexico	16½	..	6½
Central America	11	..	10
East Indies	24	..	0
West Indies	8½	..	16½
Belg. and Holland	8½	..	27
China	7½	..	10
Japan	9½	..	8
River Plate	11	..	5
Italy	8	..	7½
Spain	5	..	10
Russia	2	..	11½
Peru and Chile	2½	..	7
Australia	3	..	4
Scandinavia	2½	..	4
Various	40½	..	13
	664		677

The total trade is less than half that of Great Britain, although the United States have 30 per cent. more population. The balance of trade is, however, much evener, exports exceeding imports by 2 per cent., whereas in England imports exceed exports by 25 per cent.

As regards exports each inhabitant in England stands for $50, in the U. States $17, and in the Argentine Republic $1 22.

One-half the trade of the U. States is with England, the second place being held by Germany, and the third by Cuba. France occupies a respectable position, but no other European state, while the trade with China, Japan, and Spanish America is growing prodigiously.

CAMP ASSASSINS.

The condition of our rural districts is much worse since Governor Acosta has assumed power, although it would be unfair to lay the blame chiefly on his shoulders. The neglect of the Provincial Legislature is at the root of all evils; the Deputies will not attend even for the formality of voting the Budget.

Camp police there is none, and every day brings the horrifying details of some fresh murder. Last week we heard of a gang of robbers near Quilmes who murdered some persons and robbed others with entire impunity, only 4 leagues from our city. To-day we have the particulars of a frightful murder near Chivilcoy, committed a fortnight ago, but only made known in town yesterday, the victim being an Irishman named Michael Maloney.

So much mystery surrounds this latter case that it gives room for serious enquiry, and if the details published in the Daily News be correct, it is difficult to explain the silence that has shrouded the affair.

It appears Mr. Keenan received a notification bearing the stamp and name of the Justice of Peace of Junin informing him that 90 head of cattle stolen from him had been recovered and 4 of the robbers were in custody. On arriving at Junin the Justice declared the document a forgery, and when Keenan returned to his estancia he found his peon Maloney was murdered and Maloney's wife in a dying state from the brutal treatment of 8 bandits who had robbed the place the night before. Mrs. Keenan had concealed 25,000$ m|c., under a tea-chest, and made her escape to a neighbor's house.

No wonder the whole country is in a state of alarm at a band of assassins going at large, armed with revolvers. Probably this is the reason why the neighbors have been afraid even to publish such enormities in the newspapers. Certain it is, that with 24 daily papers in Buenos Ayres, two of them in English, not a word is known about the crime until our columns call on a leading Englishman in Chivilcoy to say if there be any truth in a vague rumor that has reached Maloney's brother in this city, about the murder in question.

Meantime, how is it that the Justice of Peace of Chivilcoy did not hear of this horrid crime and make it public?

How did the bandits obtain or forge the seal of the Justice of Junin?

Why does not Governor Acosta make a searching enquiry into the matter?

How long is this band of 8 assassins, armed with revolvers, to stalk through the camps with impunity?

Have these murderers clever accomplices to forge documents like the pretended order from Junin?

All these reflections must naturally occur to one who revolves the story of Keenan. Nor can we fail to draw some instruction from the fate of poor Maloney.

1st. No estanciero should leave his place with only one man to defend it, especially if he be foolish enough to keep 25,000$ in his rancho.

2nd. Every house in the camp ought to have at least a revolver or two. If Maloney had had firearms he might have defended himself and his wife.

3rd. Estancieros should make their houses more secure, either by a wall round, or by having the sleeping rooms upstairs with a ladder to be drawn up at night.

4th. In cases of robbery and murder the neighbors should at once telegraph to the Governor direct, and lose no time in raising a hue-and-cry to pursue the criminals.

At present there can be no hope of following the murderers of Maloney: this poor man was one of the Itapé colonists brought down from Paraguay, and only 26 years of age. He was a stalwart, muscular fellow, that could perhaps have kept at bay the whole band of assassins, but they surprised him asleep, which leads us to suppose there were no good dogs at the place. The object of the robbers was evidently plunder, although they could not find the sum of $25,000 secreted by Mr. Keenan, and only got $500 in their search of the house. It seems the same band has been for some time back plundering all the western camps, and will now probably move away elsewhere for an interval. The Government is powerless, but Irish farmers had better keep themselves well armed.

LATEST FROM CHILE.

Valparaiso, Feb. 27th.

The Argentine Minister has replied to certain passages of the note of the Minister for Foreign Affairs, and has promised to reply 'in extenso' later on.

Rumors of a change in the Ministry are again on the tapis. It is now reported that the Minister of the Interior, Don Eulojio Altamirano, and his colleague the Minister for Foreign Affairs, Don Adolfo Ibañez, will retire, and that they will be succeeded, the former by Don Juan de Dios Arlegui, and the latter by Don Jose Alfonso, judge of the Tribunal of Commerce of this city.

The new Code of Regulations of the Corps of Custom House Laborers and Lightermen has been approved by the Government, and it is expected that in the course of a few days all the difficulties which have stood in the way of the reorganization of the Corps will be surmounted.

The Government has granted to Mr. M. Hodges a yearly subsidy of $6,000, for three years, for steam navigation on the Rubio, between Malven and Nacimiento. The contractor is to make fifteen trips a month, but if he should make a voyage daily the subsidy is to be raised to $9,000 a year. The steamers are to be provided with cabin accomodation for twelve passengers, and are to be of a carrying capacity of 400 metric quintals. Government employés and stores are to be conveyed free of charge.

On Sunday last the city presented a most animated appearance, owing to a review of the fire companies and the presence of H.E. the President. As early as half past nine in the morning the several companies directed their way towards the rendezvous in the Plaza de la Victoria, the fire engines being decorated with flags, flowers etc., and presenting a very pretty appearance. After the review the companies went through several evolutions, which were executed with great celerity and skill. At twelve o'clock the companies, attended by their respective bands of music, repaired to the Plaza de la Intendencia, where the second part of the evolutions was gone through. A trial of skill was now made as to which engine possessed the greatest amount of power etc. The judges on both occasions were Messrs. I. Borrowman, M. Qiofrio and F. J. Rapp.

The Chilian Corvette Chacabuco arrived on Sunday from Iquique and Lota, and after being docked to clean and paint, will proceed to Sandy Point.

Business, we regret to say, continues in a very unsatisfactory state, and no improvement is expected to take place for some time. The unsatisfactory state of affairs in Bolivia and Peru continues to make itself felt on this market, and it is generally believed here that both those Republics are about to pass through very great changes in their internal administration.

LETTER FROM BOLIVIA.

Chuquisaca, Feb. 7th.

Dear STANDARD,

Things are very unsettled here. Corral is the candidate with best chances, but if he be killed or fail in the movement then Gen. Daza would probably become Dictator. The latter is of pure Indian descent. The movement to proclaim Corral was got up by the officers of the battalion from La Paz. We are likely to have much trouble and bloodshed.

The overland journey from B. Ayres to Bolivia is very interesting, but not without its privations. We found the heat dreadful, the rivers much swollen, the post-houses intolerable from Bichucas, and many extortions practised on travellers, with much insolence.

Travellers by private carriage should take note that although the proper rate per league is 1½ real in many places after leaving the province of Santiago we had to pay double. For example between Tucuman and Salta the distance is 62 leagues, but the post charges 86, and double the legal rate. From Lagunilla to Salta, 54 minutes by my watch, we were charged by Col. Anjel Quiros 4 leagues at double fare.

The roads from Cordoba to Tucuman were very bad in places, but from Tucuman to Salta they could not be better. The people in the province of Santiago are a miserable lot and bad mannered. In Tucuman I was much disappointed, although the environs of the city are beautiful: the climate is so damp that it rained the six days we were there. Avellaneda seems the favorite candidate for the Presidency. Disturbances are expected at Jujuy.

In our journey the only two troubles we had were, losing a peon drowned in the Sotelillo (province of Santiago), and being overturned in our dogcart near Tucuman, fortunately without hurt.

The heat in Santiago was intense, 110 Fahrenheit in the shade. We left our dogcart in Salta, as the rainy season had set in and it was impossible to cross the rivers. We travelled by muleback and canoes, and it took us twenty-six days from Salta to Sucre including two days stoppage for swollen rivers, and two days rest at Tupiza.

The weather has been fine since our arrival here, and sufficient rain has fallen to give the crops a chance, whereas in our journey hither from Jujuy there was a great want of water all the way to Tupiza, indeed a terrible drought.

Ballivian's complaint has been a puzzle to his doctors, one asserting it was cancer in the stomach, another Albumina, and a third a kind of 'tertiana' or fever and ague.

Captain Musters has arrived here with his wife from England, and is well-known for his book on Patagonia. His wife is daughter of Mr. Williams, an old and respected English resident, of the firm of Williams & Co. of this city.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Feb. 8th.

Dramatic censorship has been re-established. The most singular circumstance in the matter is, that few were aware that it had been abolished. Thiers made a 'star Chamber' respecting the giving permission to Sardou to bring out his nonsensical upholstery show, called "Uncle Sam", and left the responsibility of the matter with the Washington Cabinet. The best censors are the public, and of late they have in several instances hooted indecency and innuendo off the stage. Perhaps this taste for propriety will be developed when confided to the control of a commissioner of virtue. Actresses must study the orthodox length of a jupon, and a low bodied dress must cease to be no body at all. Authors too will be compelled to be no longer obscure as a means for attacking persons or institutions, and while cutting out political allusions, it is to be hoped the censors will not overlook expressions that make the firemen on duty blush. It is proposed, that the censors be elected by the suffrages of dramatic authors and theatrical directors, and that a candidate's merits should lie in ability to study things, rather than words. It has also been suggested to henceforth elect the Immortals to the French Academy, by the votes of the lettered classes. But this reform might secure the election of men of genius.

It has been remarked, and statistics prove it, that in France there are three times more widowers than widows. The position of the latter is made so equivocal by French society that a widow under 50 years be it understood, tries to escape from her misfortune at the earliest conventional moment and by the most practical means. This characteristic is not exclusively limited, perhaps, to any country. On the French stage the young widow is a permanent element of all comedies. In the first act she is in weeds, in the second in a rose-colored toilette, and she is doomed to be married in the third. She is suspected, even during the lifetime of her husband, to prepare against a rainy day by having a second in her mind's eye in case a misfortune deprives her of the first. Even a widow taken at a disadvantage, after lamentations worthy of Rachel or of Job, after cutting off her hair and scattering it over the tomb of her departed well beloved, will return in time to reason. There are others who see in the severance of the tie the arrival of Freedom. But these are not true widows as they have never been real wives. There are a few who having truly loved ne'er can forget, and retire from the world, broken in life. There is the widow 'against her will' who is compelled to remain so, by the testament of her husband—intolerant man; she respects his wishes and abandons herself to dress. A widower, however, is another kind of existence, and in case he be an ambassador, a prefect, or a house-porter, he is bound to marry. Circumstances oblige. What serious reason have men between forty and fifty, and Paris is full of such, to re-marry. They feel themselves as having escaped from prison, and are happier than bachelors proper, for they know how to defend themselves when it is proposed to marry them a second time. To be caught once is enough; they have realized the most beautiful dream of life perhaps—love in marriage, and feel that to expect its repetition is too much. This happiness also, wife No. 2 will never pardon: she will place the portrait of her predecessor in the lumber room; she will never allow you to regain your Paradise Lost, and you can never look forward to becoming again a bird of freedom, as vital statistics prove second wives outlive their husbands. If the widower have a daughter, is a second mother desirable to take in hand that peculiar education of French girls, coquetry and ignorance, the piano, rouge and rice powder? Besides, a wife does not become such for a widower to care his daughter—a child that is not hers; she has first her own pleasures, to enjoy her position; second, to think of her husband, and lastly of the step-child, when she has nothing else to do. It is said that some of the happiest homes are to be found where widowers bring up their daughters or sons themselves. The duty is felt to be a party of pleasure. There is an egotism, too, in seeing one's self reflected—ideas, tastes, aptitudes—in a son. The widower-bachelor is the best of bachelors; for it is remarked, that there is a god for widowers as there is for babies and drunkards.

A duel has taken place, not of an ordinary character—except that the principals were not, as usual, killed—but in conformity with orthodox rules. Two cooks disputed, and it was arranged to settle the quarrel then and there by fighting with roasting-jacks in the kitchen. Witnesses placed the parties at a measured distance, and when the first blood was drawn, honor was declared to be satisfied. A procès-verbal of the affair may be expected in the journals.

The trial of Markariantz, a young man aged but 25, is a scandal much talked about. He is an Armenian, son of a book-binder, and brother of a tailor. Possessing ability, he was intended for the Greek Church and was sent to Paris to complete his education. Soon he professed "Self Help" as the most rapid road to fortune. Though known at the Turkish Embassy to be a Jeremy Diddler, he not the less contrived to exist for a long time on the proceeds of his powers of swindling; he led the life of a Pacha with three tails in the Grand Hotel; the diamond merchants freely supplied him with their goods—innocent people as they are—which he duly handed over to his "Uncle". The saddest part of the affair is this, that by means of audacity he was admitted to the membership of some respectable clubs, and to have himself noised abroad, he found some newspapers, hitherto considered to be above corruption, capable of puffing him in proportion as he paid. He was sentenced to five years imprisonment.

Good news for the 'Home Rulers.' Sir Richard Wallace, so dear to Parisians from his generosity, is announced by the journals as having been 'elected member of the Parliament of Ireland.'

Amateurs in search of 'objects d'art,' can now bid for seven second-hand locomotives, that a 'collector' offers for sale.

Wife, snatching away a second plate of food from her husband at dinner; 'Remember, Monsieur, you go to the Prefect's ball to-night, and the papers announce the buffet is laden with refreshments.'

An old gentleman, with an ear-trumpet, forced his way towards the pulpit in a country church, to hear the sermon; when seated, the sexton advanced, and warned him, that in case he 'blew that instrument,' he would be 'at once turned out.'

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The renewal of the rumpus in Entre Rios by Querencio and some kindred uneasy spirits was known early yesterday morning, and caused a rather unpleasant feeling. It will be really too bad if another scrimmage is to begin in this unfortunate province, which filibustering rowdies seem now to consider their legitimate prey. The pottering way in which Jordan was put down, and the escape of all his aiders and abettors, from any kind of adequate punishment, no doubt acts as an incentive to all revolutionists, who have nothing to lose and everything to gain by plunging the province, or the whole Republic, in hot water.

The party of excursionists to the Neva, to see their friends off, on Tuesday, did not reach the mole head on their return till near 10 o'clock p. m. From the moment the little steamer (the Buenos Ayres) left the mole till she returned to it the most extreme conviviality and cordiality prevailed. Every man of the party, whether John, Pat, or Sandy carried in his buttonhole a Shamrock (or what did duty for it) which was 'drowned' and drowned again and again in the good old fashion, the liquor being aristocratic Champagne and Matchless Brandy, instead of homely whisky punch. Dinner was served on board the Neva, Don Mateo hospitably giving "carte blanche" for everything. The river was pretty rough on the way out, and some of the excursionists had rather disturbing interviews with Neptune. Nevertheless everything passed of "à merveille."

We commend the following pithy paragraph to those well-meaning persons who think that missions, rations and conciliation are the best means for civilizing the denizens of the Pampa.

"An old Indian fighter went to hear a lecture in St. Louis on 'How to Save the Indians.' On going out of the hall he met the lecturer, and said, 'That are doctrine o'yourn is good enough for a big-wigmam like this, but you couldn't practise it out on the plains and save your ha'r."

We advise the members of the Scotch Church that their highly esteemed pastor, the Rev. James Smith, will celebrate divine service on Sunday next at the quinta of Mr. Drysdale, at Lomas, at 4 o'clock p.m.; there will consequently be no evening service at the church in town.

Hurrah! The first thirty miles of the Cordoba and Tucuman Railway were opened to the station Jesus Maria on Tuesday. The Governor of Cordaba sent congratulatory telegrams to Pres. Sarmiento. We salute Messrs. Telfener and Co. on the auspicious event. At their present rate of progress, we expect to be going to the inauguration of the whole line at Tucuman in a couple of years at furthest.

The particulars of the murder of an Irishman named Molony, accompanied by the worst outrage to his wife, on Mr. Keenan's estancia, near Chivilcoy, were given by our English contemporary yesterday. We had received a pretty similar version of the affair on Monday, but unconfirmed, and waited to hear from Mr. Hearne, of Chivilcoy, in answer to our enquiry in this column. There seems to have been a most unpleasant amount of mystery connected with this fearful crime, and we are at a loss to comprehend the course adopted by those most concerned. Publicity is one of the greatest aids to law and justice, and the unaccountable manner in which this awful tragedy remained unmentioned for so long has given the criminals ample time to escape. Governor Acosta must order this fearful affair to be probed to the bottom.

We had mails from the West Coast yesterday, and give extracts from the Valparaiso papers in another column. There is not a great deal of news. A new line of railway from Valparaiso to Santiago, via Melipilla, is spoken of, the existing line being quite unequal to the enormous and increasing traffic. The Duke of Genoa, son of King Victor Emmanuel, is expected shortly at Valparaiso from San Francisco, and his countrymen on the West Coast are preparing to give him a right, royal reception.

We hear of a very recherché feed given on St. Patrick's Day at the north end of town. The whole affair was tip-top, and most of the guests went home before morning.

Professor Palmieri of Naples, who, it will be remembered, heroically refused to leave his Observatory when Mount Vesuvius dealt burning lava and death around some few years ago, now announces that the appearance of the volcano indicates coming volcanic disturbances of magnitude, not only in Italy, but in various far distant lands. This is bad news for our West Coast neighbours, as the Professor is the oracle of the Age on earthquake and volcanic subjects.

It will be seen by a letter in another column that Mr. Latimer Saunders, of Rom Court, is sole agent in the Plate for the new Lightning Sheep Shears, referred to in yesterday's issue by our old friend "Dick". Mr. Saunders will be happy to show the new Shears to any persons, calling at his office. In our humble opinion the old style of shears is doomed; the Lightning seems a perfect instrument, and is simplicity and cheapness combined.

'Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast;' and our old friend Mrs. Partington declares it has the same effect on 'the savage beast.' We shall have lots of charming music in B. Ayres this season. We gave the names of the Colon Theatre opera company a few days ago, and Mr. Pestalardo favored us yesterday morning with the names of the leading artists contracted in Europe by Signor Bimboni for the Opera House. The Prima donna is a German, Fraulein Viziah. The mezzo soprano, Mme. Stella Bonheur, hails from 'La Belle France,' and we have seen an extract from a London paper which speaks enthusiastically of her appearance as the Page in 'Un Ballo in Maschera.' The baritone is Signor Cottone, and it is like a dream to us that we have seen his name in the bills of the Covent Garden Opera House. The next packet will bring the names of the tenor and basso.

The Anales de Agricultura of the 15th has an Essex porker, reared on the Royal Model Farm at Windsor, for frontispiece; various excellent articles on the culture of wheat and the vine, on ploughing, grafting, horticulture &c. make up the number.

The Municipality again! A party in whose books the Corporators stood and stand for a pretty stiff amount called at the Hotel de Ville on Monday and presented his little bill. The Lord Mayor, or the Secretary, or some one, wrote him out a cheque on the Argentine Bank for the amount, with the air of a Rothschild. Away went the delighted man to the Bank, and presented the draft. It was, evidently, not the first cheque of the kind from the same quarter that the teller had seen; a sardonic smile overspread his benign countenance; he did not even refer to the ledger, but with remorseless pen wrote 'No Funds' across the cheque and handed it back to the owner, who staggered from the premises a 'sold' and sadder man. He is now whistling for his money, but, unlike the Scotch Lassie, it wont come to him.

The fine steamer Thales has brought out two locomotives for the Central Argentine Railway. Not before they are wanted, by all accounts.

Letters from the Interior state that the shareholders of the Copiapo Railway lately held a meeting, at which it was resolved to push that line across the Andes to Rioja. This is good news for the mining districts up there.

An interesting letter from Chuquisaca will be found in another column. We expect henceforward to have a regular correspondence with all the latest news from the uneasy republic of Bolivia.

They have now effigies of the two miscreants who murdered Mr. Southam and his daughter, at the Wax Works in Rosario. When is the Public to see the two fiends 'in propria persona,' in the public plaza, in front of a firing party? There is some hope left that when Governor Bayo enters office justice will get her due. We hope so. It is time.

The fast steamer South America left yesterday for Europe. She is certain to beat the head off the Neva on the run home, as "great people move slowly".

"Is there to be no Pacific steamer this week either?" was a very general question yesterday. We really dont know. Six months ago we were in the habit of swearing and setting our 'ticker' by this Company, but now, in justice to our tongue and our time piece, we have abandoned the practice, until its steamers become regular again.

During an examination of a negro in the Catechism, he was asked by the clergyman what he was made of. "Of mud, massa", was the reply. On being told he should say "Of dust", he answered, "No' massa, it no do; no tick together".

"Wear my hat on my head? Impossible, grand'pa. Haven't done such a thing for ages! It's pinned on with my hair."

The Cordoba papers mention a schoolmistress in that city, being caught administering the birch rod to a girl pupil of hers, and are in awful horror at the idea of such a thing. Perhaps the young minx deserved it. The mawkish objection to the corporal castigation of bold children affected by parents and guardians in these countries is bosh; 'spare the rod and spoil the child.'

The Progreso, of the learned city, is expecting a visit up there from Drs. Alsina, Avellaneda, and Elizalde. Indeed!

The boys at the Military School at Palermo got up a 'barring out' on Saturday. Order was restored by arresting the ringleaders and sending them to cool their heels, and their heads also, in prison, at the Retiro Barracks.

Cholera has broken out in Victoria, Entre Rios.

A decent family in Calle San Juan celebrated the birth day of one of its branches on Monday evening last, and bade all the neighbours to the feast. While the guests were all capering nimbly in my lady's chamber to the lascivious pleadings of a hurdy-gurdy, five ruffians broke into the house, smashed the furniture, overturned the supper table, and played "bull in the china shop" to such an extent that all the women fainted, the men dashing away, and the whole 'fiesta' burst up in the most ignominous manner. Nobody was hurt, and the row is supposed to have been only a malicious lark.

THE NEW SHEEP SHEARS.

B. Ayres, March 18, 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

I notice in your impression of to-day a quotation drawing attention to the new shearing machine called the 'Patent Lightning Sheep Shears.' As the sole agent for their sale in the Rio de la Plata, I beg to inform you and your numerous readers that I shall be glad to show samples of them to any one taking an interest therein.

I remain, dear Sirs,

Yours obediently,

Latimer H. Saunders.

ON 'CHANGE.

March 18th 1874

Nat. Bonds	78
Cedulas	85½
Ounces	400
Soys	122½
Pats	25

Cedulas are again flat, with a downward tendency. It seems the recent slight advance brought forward many sellers, and when it became known that the gold shipments per Nova reached £170,000 the bulls became nervous.

The sales were as follow:

Cedulas.

For cash	1,200	85½
do	2,000	8 ½
31st inst.	20,000	85½
For 2nd month	105,000	85½
30th April	20,000	8 ½

To deliver before December—
20,000 at 84½
50,000 at 84¼

The last two sales to deliver any time before 31st December attracted attention, indicating no confidence in the future.

Discounts are dull: little doing. The Provincial Bank discounted eight millions, against twelve millions asked for. The National Bank yesterday lent 240,000 pats. It was rumoured that the heavy export of specie has at last alarmed some of our financiers, who now admit that reducing the bank rate to 8 per cent. on 1st inst was last policy. The National Bank have no intention of lowering their rate from 12 per cent.

The news published by the Pampa that the Brazilians were fortifying the island of Cerrito was not generally received.

The steamer Belgiano left the Tigre on Sunday morning with Mr. Mortimer and three assistant engineers for the Cumana Railway works which may at length be said to have been begun. Messrs Steven and Vonwiller, who charter'd the steamer, took up in her a large quantity of material for the National Arsenal at Zarate. Under Mr Luis Scheiner's inspection the works are going on fast: a ready foundation of the chief building have been laid and the mole is near completion. A small railway for the conduction of heavy guns and ammunition is also just finished and it is expected the guns will be all landed by the end of month.

Several cargoes of coal offering in the River at 20 pats equal to 25 ashore.

Rubens cleared to-day for Antwerp and Liverpool with full passenger, carg and £27,600.

Much noise has been made in Genoa by Don Domingo Sacomano, Captain of an Italian barque, the Elena, that went aground on the English Bank on the 30th July 1873, who published in the Genoese papers a most damaging statement against the Port Captain of Montevideo, charging him with being more a wrecker than a Port Captain, and sweeping off a large part of the cargo. The question is a most vital one for shipping interests, and particularly so since there exists a very strong prejudice on the part of ship captains against the Montevidean salvage men who have already a very bad name in Europe; however, in the present case Mr. Silveyra, the Port Captain of Montevideo, stands up manfully to defend his character, and he publishes the following statement. He denies in toto that when news of the wreck reached the Mount a crowd of vessels left to seize her. The Port Captain with Messrs. Risso and Schaffino, Insurance Agents, sent word to the Italian Admiral, and sent off the Oriental steamer Montevideo with 12 armed seamen to guard the wreck; also the steamer Solis put off, the whole expedition under Captain Sosa. A few hours after Messrs. Risso and Schaffino sent off the steamer Uruguay, and it is false that the vessel was cleared out and sacked by the parties who were sent to save her. After getting out some of the cargo the vessel floated. She was then towed into the Mount and sold by order of the Italian Consul for 12,500 patacons, the cargo still in her, titles &c. sold for 6,500 pats and the salvage cargo that was sent to Sivori's barraca, and sold by auction also by order of the Consul. Everything was done in a legal way and according to the Codigo de Comercio, and the Port Capt. of Montevideo is astounded that the Captain of the Elena could publish in Genoa such a tissue of lies, and such damning calumnies against the port authorities of the Mount. The matter is indeed a serious one and highly calculated to injure the fair name of Montevideo in Europe.

On looking over the Montevidean papers at hand, we find it is a push between dry goods and real estate which the auctioneers can sell the most of; trade sales and rebel estate sales fill the papers, the squeeze seems worse than here for we find the Montevidean auctioneers calling auction sales of building sites quintas and chacra land to be held on the Bolsa steps. We suppose that the dry goods auctioneers down there will soon follow suit and cotton pocket handkerchief, brananes, prints, shirts and stockings will next be advertized for auction on the Bolsa steps of Montevideo. What next? Nevertheless Montevideo pays her gas bill and is not lighted with kerosene.

The communication on the lighting of the River Plate, which appeared in this journal last week, is, we find, fully confirmed by other masters of vessels. The light on the Chico Bank consists simply of two ship's lamps hung one above the other to the mast of an old lighter which bears no distinguishing mark whatever. The lights when approached from one direction are quite shut out from view by the mast its self. Only quite recently a vessel bound to this port with a general cargo got ashore on the bank, from the pilot mistaking the light for a vessel at anchor. For this so-called light and the one off Point Indio, all vessels coming here pay six cents gold per ton. The total amount of light dues for the River Plate payable by a vessel of 1000 tons register is over two hundred patacones! No wonder masters of vessels object to coming to Buenos Ayres when other freight offers.

The Montevidean Legislature has thrown out the petition of Sr Reybaud for a concession for the export of live cattle. For years Montevideo has been exporting live sheep to Rio. The committee, however, approves of granting privilege to Sr Herrera for six years, for the manufacture of 'extractum carnis.' Query—What about Mr Giebert's privilege?

To morrow (Thursday) a public auction sale will be held in Montevideo which is indeed a sign of the times. The whole stock in trade of the Plaza Ramirez floating bath establishment, which barely a year ago was started under such bright auspices. Pity it is that some party from Buenos Ayres cannot buy up the concern for Quilmes or the Gas house beach. Sixteen beautiful bathing boxes, with everything complete. The auction is a liquidation affair. To day there is a sale at the Cerro of half a pile of Cadiz salt, some wheelbarrows and other things belonging to a saladero there. We looked over the list to see if any salted hides were to be sold, but nothing of the kind.

On rather good authority we learn that there is a move in Montevideo to start a National Bank to help the Government, and a Hypothecary Bank to help the real estate men. Some parties object, but our informant says that there is but one thing that can stop these measures, and that is the negotiation of the new loan in Europe. If the loan cannot be done—although the Government people persist that it can and will—then both these banks, which, according to the Montevidean papers, have had such splendid success, will be started at the Mount—the Hypothecary Bank to be called the Banco Rural, and the Nat. Bank to have the privilege of a mint to coin etc. —we suppose, the gold from Cuñapiru.

The best news from Europe for the Plate by the steamer is that salted hides (new), a cargo from the Uruguay have been sold in Liverpool at 8½d. Shippers looked for 8d, but 8½d has put them all in the best of good humor. Still hide brokers here blame the shippers greatly for having needlessly driven up prices to 56r, when, had they but kept quiet, they might have bought all the hides of the faena, at the very highest, at 50 reales.

Estancieros who may be in want of good rams had better attend Nazar's auction rooms to-morrow (Thursday), where they may pick up a few first class Rambouillet rams cheap.

The important gas meeting comes off this evening at the gas office in Calle Victoria; this gas question is a lesson to us all, and about the sharpest thing that has occurred here since the fall of Rosas; had we a Chancellor Kent on the bench in Buenos Ayres, it would go hard not only with every member of the municipality but with the Governor himself; none could have believed that this question would have evoluted the shape it did. For the information of those few who think that the new gas company can supply gas to the municipality after the Sandanda that has occurred we may state that one of the shareholders states that if such a thing is attempted without the municipality first paying up what it owes to the old Co., he would not sell out his shares in the new company but tear them up in pieces on the Bolsa; and as for Mr. Iraola's celebrated Alumgro gas works that offers to light the town when the corporation can't even light up the Flores road, the place has been offered for sale in London and couldn't.

It was rumoured on 'Change to-day that some very unfavorable letters have come down from Entre Rios, and that there is trouble again in that quarter. Possibly some of the rebels were holding back until the Entre Rios Government got the 20,000 pats. from the National Bank. Entre Rios seems doomed.

The news from Paraguay looks better, all the cannons have been dismounted, street barricades removed, and Asuncion is again quiet, business dull, and the great attraction the landing of Krupps steel guns for the Brazilians.

The Government deposit in the National Bank now amounts touches 3 millions pats. The discounts of that bank are growing fast, and now reach 6½ millions pats. It is thought that by the end of the year they will reach about double, say 13 millions. The present issue of notes is small, only 3½ millions pats, of which nearly ½ a million is in the Treasury, and the bank holds in specie over 2½ millions pats. This shows well for the bank.

The fine Lavarello steamer South America cleared to-day. Mr. Lavarello says she will be home before the Neva. She took the following cargo—700 bales wool.

1,000 dry hides.

400 passengers and 98 berths already taken for return voyage.

The steamer Tujaparu that entered yesterday from Rosario brought down a coal hulk, and then left for Montevideo to await the passengers per Aconcagua.

Coal looks a very good article at present; price 20 pats. and very little here. The Argentine Government calls for bids for 1000 tons, to be opened on 15th next month. The Brazilian Government has a coal deposit in Corumba of 8000 tons. Rather a good supply this.

We have received the tariff for telegraph messages to be sent from Rio to Europe via United States, and will publish it in a few days when we have room. After all it will be a costly thing enough to send a message to Europe.

Gen. Caldwell, at present U. S. Consul at Valparaiso, is to be the new American Resident Minister at Montevideo.

The Port Captain of Buenos Ayres calls for parties interested in the wreck of a vessel, name not given, on the south coast of this province, to send in their claims at once.

There is of course the usual secrecy about the export of gold by the Nova, just as if it mattered one iota to the general public. It was said, however, on 'Change, that she took a very heavy consignment and over £200,000 sterling. Four of the private banks, we believe, shipped specie; in fact, any bank to-day doing a large exchange business must necessarily ship specie, as the bills offering are not sufficient to cover the drafts. In the Nova one or two Irish sheepfarmers left for their native land, having earned a respectable competence. The presence of these men in Ireland is a guarantee of increased Irish emigration to the Plate.

There is now a good emigration movement towards the provinces. Yesterday some 200 families left for Parana. A native proprietor of Santa Fe states that if the emigrants now unemployed in this city consult their own interests, they would at once leave for Santa Fe and take farms at San Carlos.

In the South market to-day there was a little more movement, Messrs. Ramos Otero and Co. sold the following.

6000 ar do. 72.
1200 ar lambs wool 62.
350 dry cow hides 170.
30 ar horse hair 160.
12 doz sheepskins pelalos 55.
3000 ar fine wool from 62 to 69.

Wool rules very flat and prices falling, roads in South very bad, and little coming in.

Elections.

Here, as in England, the people are engaged in the exercise of that first most noble privilege of a free nation. On both sides of the Atlantic the great errors seem to be the adoption of physical force. Brandy, and not revolvers, should be used. The reason is very clear: voting up polls, not breaking heads, wins the day; therefore invite your friends to tot, tot yourself, and remember

SAVINGS BANK
BANK: MAUA AND CO.
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and Holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass-book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
